"SEC. 228. The number of bound volumes and advance pamphlet installments, to be printed under the provisions of section 225, shall be determined by the reporter from estimates furnished by the Attorney General and the Superintendent of Documents, and the prices for said bound volumes and pamphlet installments to be sold by the Public Printer shall be fixed by the reporter with the approval of the Attorney General and shall equal the cost of composition, plating, printing, and binding, and such additional amount as shall equal as nearly as may be, one-half the sums appropriated for the salary and expenses of the reporter under the provisions of section 226.

"Receipts from the sale of said reports and pamphlet installments shall be covered into the Treasury to the credit of miscellaneous receipts.

"Whenever the supply of bound copies of any volume produced under any requisition pursuant to section 1 of this Act shall have been disposed of, reprints from the original plates shall be made at the Government Printing Office from time to time in sufficient numbers to meet current demands. Such reprints shall equal, as nearly as possible, in quality of presswork, paper, and binding the original editions, and shall be sold at the price fixed for the latest volume published when the reprints are made; so much of the money thus derived as equals the cost of making and distributing the reprints sold shall be credited to the appropriation for printing and binding, the remainder thereof shall be deposited in the Treasury to the credit of miscellaneous receipts."

SEC. 5. That the provisions of this Act shall be effective as of November 1, 1921: Provided, however, That there shall be deducted from the salary and allowances fixed by section 226 of the Judicial Code, as amended hereby, such sums as may have been paid or allowed out of the Treasury to the reporter for work done by him in the preparation for printing and binding of reports of decisions rendered since the opening of the October, 1921, term of the Supreme Court.

Such sums as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of sections 225, 226, 227, and 228 of the Judicial Code as amended by this Act are hereby authorized to be appropriated annually out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.
