To empower the Judicial Conference to study and recommend changes in and additions to the rules of practice and procedure in the Federal courts.

Judicial Conference.
62 Stat. 497.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 331 of title 28 of the United States Code, as amended, is further amended by inserting therein immediately after the fourth paragraph and before the fifth paragraph thereof an additional paragraph reading as follows:

Study of court procedure, etc.

"The Conference shall also carry on a continuous study of the operation and effect of the general rules of practice and procedure now or hereafter in use as prescribed by the Supreme Court for the other courts of the United States pursuant to law. Such changes in and additions to those rules as the Conference may deem desirable to promote simplicity in procedure, fairness in administration, the just determination of litigation, and the elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay shall be recommended by the Conference from time to time to the Supreme Court for its consideration and adoption, modification or rejection, in accordance with law."
