AN ACT

To amend the International Travel Act of 1961, as amended, in order to improve the balance of payments by further promoting travel to the United States, and for other purposes.

October 21, 1970

[H. R. 14685]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 3 of the International Travel Act of 1961 (75 Stat. 129; 22 U.S.C. 2121-2126) is amended by changing the period at the end of clause 4 of subsection (a) to a semicolon, and by inserting after such clause the following:

International Travel Act of 1961, amendment. Tourism to U.S., promotion.

“(5) upon the application of any State or political subdivision or combination thereof, or private or public nonprofit organization or association, may make grants for projects designed to carry out the purposes of this Act if he finds that such projects will facilitate and encourage travel to any State or political subdivision or combination thereof by residents of foreign countries. No financial assistance will be made available under this clause unless the Secretary determines that matching funds will be available from State or other non-Federal sources and in no event will the amount of any grant under this clause for any project exceed 50 per centum of the cost of such project. The Secretary is authorized to establish such policies, standards, criteria, and procedures and to prescribe such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary or appropriate for the administration of this clause;

Matching funds.

Contract authority.

"(6) may enter into contracts with private profit- or non-profit-making individuals, businesses, and organizations for projects designed to carry out the purposes of this Act whenever he determines that such projects cannot be accomplished under the authority of clause (5) of this subsection; and

"(7) may make awards of merchandise manufactured and purchased in the United States to travel agents and tour operators in foreign countries as an incentive for their promotion of travel to the United States by residents of foreign countries. The Secretary is authorized to establish such policies, standards, criteria, and procedures as he may deem necessary or appropriate for the administration of this clause."

Recordkeeping.

SEC. 2. Section 3 of such Act (22 U.S.C. 2123) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

"(c) Each recipient of assistance under clause (5) of subsection (a) of this section shall keep such records as the Secretary shall prescribe, including records which fully disclose the amount and disposition by such recipient of the proceeds of such assistance, the total cost of the project or undertaking in connection with which such assistance is given or used, and the amount of that portion of the cost of the project or undertaking supplied by other sources, and such other records as will facilitate an effective audit.

Audit.

"(d) The Secretary and the Comptroller General of the United States, or any of their duly authorized representatives shall have access for the purpose of audit and examination to any books, documents, papers, and records of the recipients that are pertinent to the assistance received under clause (5) of subsection (a) of this section."

SEC. 3. (a) Section 4 of such Act (22 U.S.C. 2124) is amended to read as follows:

U. S. Travel
Service; Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Tourism, appointment.

"SEC. 4. There is established in the Department of Commerce a United States Travel Service which shall be headed by an Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Tourism who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who shall report directly to the Secretary. All the duties and responsibilities of the Secretary under this Act shall be exercised directly by the Secretary or by the Secretary through the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Tourism. In addition, the Secretary shall designate at least one individual to serve as Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Tourism who shall be under the supervision of the Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Tourism."

81 Stat. 198;
83 Stat. 863.

(b) Paragraph (12) of section 5315 of title 5, United States Code (relating to level IV of the Executive Schedule), is amended by striking out "(5)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(6)".

Appropriations.
75 Stat. 130.
22 USC 2126.

SEC. 4. Section 6 of such Act is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 6. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act, there is authorized to be appropriated not to exceed $15,000,000 for each of the fiscal years ending June 30, 1971, June 30, 1972, and June 30, 1973. Funds appropriated under this section shall be available without regard to the provisions of section 501 and 3702 of title 44 of the United States Code. Funds appropriated under this section for printing of travel promotion materials are authorized to be made available for two fiscal years."

82 Stat. 1243,
1305.

22 USC 2121
note.

SEC. 5. Section 7 of such Act is renumbered "SEC. 8." and a new section 7 is inserted to read as follows:

"United States."
"State."

"SEC. 7. As used in this Act, the term 'United States' and the term 'State' are defined to include the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.”

SEC. 6. (a) There is established a commission to be known as the National Tourism Resources Review Commission (hereafter in this section referred to as the “Commission”) composed of fifteen members as follows:

National Tourism Resources Review Commission, establishment.

(1) One representative of the Department of Commerce designated by the Secretary of Commerce.

(2) One representative of the Department of the Interior designated by the Secretary of the Interior.

(3) One representative of the Department of State designated by the Secretary of State.

(4) One representative of the Department of Transportation designated by the Secretary of Transportation.

(5) Eleven individuals appointed by the President from private life who are informed about and concerned with the improvement, development, and promotion of United States tourism resources and opportunities or who are otherwise experienced in tourism research, promotion, or planning. The President shall designate one of the individuals appointed by him to serve as Chairman of the Commission.

(b) The Commission shall make a full and complete study and investigation for the purpose of—

Study.

(1) determining the domestic travel needs of the people of the United States and of visitors from other countries at the present time and to the year 1980;

(2) determining the travel resources of the United States available to satisfy such needs now and to the year 1980;

(3) determining policies and programs which will insure that the domestic travel needs of the present and the future are adequately and efficiently met;

(4) determining a recommended program of Federal assistance to the States in promoting domestic travel; and

(5) determining whether a separate agency of the Government should be established, or whether an existing department, agency, or instrumentality within the Government should be designated, to consolidate and coordinate tourism research, planning, and development activities presently performed by different existing agencies of the Government.

The Commission shall submit a comprehensive report of its activities and the results of such study and investigation, together with its recommendations with respect thereto, to the President and to the Congress not later than two years after the first meeting of the Commission. The Commission shall cease to exist sixty days after the date of the submission of its comprehensive report. The comprehensive report of the Commission shall propose such legislative enactments and administrative actions as in its judgment are necessary to carry out its recommendations.

Report to President and Congress.

Termination.

(c) The Secretary of Commerce shall make available to the Commission such secretarial, clerical, and other assistance as the Commission may require to carry out its functions under this section. The Commission is authorized to request from any department, agency, or independent instrumentality of the Government any information and assistance it deems necessary to carry out its functions under this section; and each such department, agency, and instrumentality is authorized to cooperate with the Commission and, to the extent permitted by law, to furnish such information and assistance to the Commission upon request made by its Chairman.

Clerical assistance.

Agency cooperation.

(d) In order to carry out the provisions of this section, the Commission is authorized—

Powers.

(1) to make, promulgate, issue, rescind, and amend rules and regulations governing the manner of the operations of the Commission;

(2) to appoint and fix the compensation of such officers and employees as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this section and to prescribe their authority and duties; and

(3) to obtain the services of experts and consultants in accordance with section 3109 of title 5, United States Code.

80 Stat. 416.

(e) (1) Members of the Commission from private life, while engaged in the performance of their duties as members of the Commission, shall receive compensation at a rate to be fixed by the President, not to exceed $100 each day, including traveltime, and shall, while so serving away from their homes or regular places of business, be entitled to travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, as authorized by section 5703 of title 5, United States Code, for persons in the Government service employed intermittently.

80 Stat. 499;
83 Stat. 190.

(2) Members of the Commission who are officers or employees of the United States shall serve without additional compensation, but shall be entitled to travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, as authorized by section 5703 of title 5, United States Code, for persons in the Government service employed intermittently.

Appropriation.

(f) There are authorized to be appropriated such sums, not to exceed $750,000, as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. Approved October 21, 1970.
