

Public Law 91-66

August 25, 1969
[S. 742]

AN ACT

To amend the Act of June 12, 1948 (62 Stat. 382), in order to provide for the construction, operation, and maintenance of the Kennewick division extension, Yakima project, Washington, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Act of June 12, 1948 (62 Stat. 382), is hereby amended as follows:

(a) Insert the words "and Kennewick division extension", after the words "Kennewick division" in section 1 and add the following items to the principal units listed in said section: "Kiona siphon" and "Relift pumping plants".

(b) Insert at the end of section 3 the following: "Costs of the Kennewick division extension allocated to irrigation which are determined by the Secretary to be in excess of the water users' ability to repay within a fifty-year repayment period following a ten-year development period, shall be charged to and returned to the reclamation fund in accordance with the provisions of section 2 of the Act of June 14, 1966 (80 Stat. 200), as amended by section 6 of the Act of September 7, 1966 (80 Stat. 707): Provided, That section 5 of this Act shall not be applicable to the revenues derived from the Federal Columbia River power system. Power and energy required for irrigation water pumping for the Kennewick extension shall be made available by the Secretary from the Federal Columbia River power system at charges determined by him."

SEC. 2. No water shall be delivered to any water user on the Kennewick division extension for a period of ten years from the date of enactment of this authorizing Act for the production on newly irrigated lands of any basic agricultural commodity, as defined in the Agricultural Act of 1949, or any amendment thereof, if the total supply of such commodity for the marketing year in which the bulk of the crop would normally be marketed is in excess of the normal supply as defined in section 801(b)(10) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, unless the Secretary of Agriculture calls for an increase in production of such commodity in the interest of national security.

SEC. 3. There are authorized to be appropriated for the new works associated with the Kennewick division extension $6,735,000 (January 1969 prices), plus or minus such amounts, if any, as may be required by reason of changes in the cost of construction work of the types involved therein, as shown by engineering cost indexes, and, in addition, such sums as may be required to operate and maintain the extension.

Approved August 25, 1969.

AN ACT

To authorize the Commissioner of the District of Columbia to lease to the Jewish Historical Society of Greater Washington the former synagogue of the Adas Israel Congregation and real property of the District of Columbia for the purpose of establishing a Jewish Historical Museum.

September 16, 1969
[H. R. 12677]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it is the purpose of this Act to enable the Jewish Historical Society of Greater Washington, a nonprofit corporation organized in the District of Columbia, to place on real property of the District of Columbia the structure which served as the synagogue of Adas Israel Congregation (located in the District of Columbia on the southeast corner of Sixth and G Streets, Northwest) and to improve and restore such structure for the purpose of establishing and maintaining it as a Jewish Historical Museum or for other appropriate purposes.

D.C. Jewish Historical Society of Greater Washington.
Leasing of property.

SEC. 2. To carry out the purpose of this Act, the Commissioner may—

(1) acquire the structure described in the first section and lease it to the Jewish Historical Society of Greater Washington, and

(2) lease to such Society real property of the District of Columbia which he determines is not then required for the needs of the District of Columbia.

Any lease made under this Act shall be subject to such terms and conditions as the Commissioner may deem necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act and in the discretion of the Commissioner, may be made with or without monetary consideration.

Approved September 16, 1969.
